

Times Colonist (Victoria)

Stranded ship sold, crew paid

Wed Dec 3 2014

Page: A9

Section: Canada

Dateline: ST. JOHN'S, N.L.

Source: Canadian Press

Union leaders say a cargo ship stranded at the port of Argentia in Newfoundland since Aug. 4 has been sold to new owners.

A statement issued by the Fish, Food and Allied Workers-Unifor union on Tuesday said eight Ukrainian and three Russian crew members on board the Jana have been paid.

Gerard Bradbury with the International Transport Workers Federation says six of the men will fly home on Thursday.